HOUSE COMPLETES H. C. L. WORK TODAY

Cold Storage Bill to Finish Program of President. Senate Dilatory.

With the passage of the bill limiting cold storage and requiring the marking of all stored food, which is expected today, the House will have completed all of the plans suggested by President Wilson in his message to Congress as being necessary for giving immediate relief from high prices.

The other legislation which the President asked and which has been approved by the House amends the Federal food control act so that profiteers in clothing and the small retail grocers may be prosecuted, and provides a fund of more than $2,500,000 for the Department of Justice and the Federal Trade Commission.

The President delivered his message nearly two months ago, but Congress has not yet given final approval to any one of these measures. House leaders claim they have passed the legislation promptly, but that the final passage has been delayed by conferences with the Senate.

As yet the Senate has not started consideration of the deficiency appropriation bill which carries the funds to prosecute profiteers.

Believing that the high cost of living question may be brought to a crisis again, the inactivity of Congress is causing House leaders considerable worry.

A request has gone to Senate leaders, it was learned today, to give the high cost of living legislation a place in between the long treaty debates, and not leave it until after the treaty is disposed of.

BANDITS BIND AND GAG FARMER BOY; TAKE $40

EAU CLAIRE, Wis., Sept. 30.—Arnell, the eighteen-year-old son of R. G. Markham, Augusta, was gagged, bound to a tree and robbed, six miles from Augusta, by three young men who had engaged him to drive them to Fall Creek in his father's car. They took $40 from his pocket.

Neither the baroness nor her sister would discuss the return to this country of the former Philadelphia woman and her son.

Baroness von Boecklin is the first girl who married a German nobleman to decide to renounce her title and reclaim her American fortune, seized when the United States declared war with Germany. When she succeeds in legally eliminating her husband's title and name by a divorce she automatically will be an American citizen.

Britain's Peers Offer To Run Trains During Rail Strike in England

PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 30.—James Stockley, K. C., of Broadstairs, who is a daily commuter to London, has offered himself to the government as a fireman. He advocates public meetings all over England to enroll volunteers for amateur railway service.

Many peers who have been with the army have come forward in the crisis offering to take out trains, according to a copyright dispatch from London to the Public Ledger.

The government is playing a waiting game at present, hoping for a split among the labor leaders.

The latest story is that T. C. Cramp, president of the National Union of Railwaymen, and Robert Smillie, president of the Miners' Federation of Great Britain, are seeking to destroy J. N. Thomas, general secretary of the National Union of Railwaymen, who opposed direct action at the Glasgow congress.

Thomas recently visited America.

SHE RENOUNCES HER GERMAN HUSBAND

PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 30.—The Baroness Boecklin von Boecklin, formerly Miss Gertrude Derwind, has given up her German husband, and with her son, Rupert, is at the Strawberry estate, Meadow Lodge, outside Bryn Mawr, the home of the Baroness' sister, Mrs. Robert E. Strawberry.

TOO MUCH JAZZING UNDER M. E. CHURCH

So Baltimore Pastor Quits Conference and Joins Non-Shimmying Baptists.

BALTIMORE, Sept. 30.—The tolerance by Methodist ministers of jazzing, card playing, and theater going is among the reasons given by the Rev. Melvin C. Morris, a member of the Baltimore conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church, for joining the Baptist Church.

As pastor of the Montford Avenue M. E. Church, he preached a farewell sermon and later attended the Baptist ministers' meeting at the Young Men's Christian Association.

"With preachers standing by, approving and encouraging, while members of their congregation jazz on the pavement and in the vestibule of the church, I felt it was time for me to get out," he said.

"The mayor of New York at a recent entertainment where a professional started to out-shimmy the shimmyers on the Great White Way, ordered it 'cut out'." The Mayor of York, Pa., recently announced that if anybody started jazzing or shimmying in that city he would be sent to the lockup.

"We need more mayors like those two men in our big cities and more preachers like them in the pulpit."

ITALY' WHEAT CROP FALLS FAR BELOW USUAL AVERAGE

Italy's wheat crop this year is much below the average, according to reports received here today, which state that the crop will be only about 4,500,000 tons, due to the fact that the cultivated area was smaller this year by 500,000 hectares. With normal cultivation, the crop would have exceeded the average, it is said. In fact, excellent reports have been received from a number of the planted wheat districts.

The outlook for the Indian corn and rice crop is excellent, it is said.

SEEK NEW PACT IF U. S. SPURNS LEAGUE

French Will Demand Material Guarantees Unless America O. K.'s Treaty.

New York, Sept. 30.—That the failure of the United States to accept the peace treaty would oblige France to frame a new treaty containing guarantees of material rather than a moral character is the theme being developed eagerly by the militaristic elements in the French Chamber, according to a copyrighted Paris dispatch to the New York World. Maurice Bares writes in the reactionary Echo de Paris:

"The peace which we are going to sign does not free us from any vigilance. Germany must be watched and we must keep our alliances and maintain our force."

"What would happen or what should we do if the American Senate does not vote for the treaty, or votes it with such restrictions that the whole structure will be full of cracks? Nothing precise can be said as long as we do not know America's decision. It will be favorable, I think."

"But if they bring down the whole structure put together by the conference, then France, with elasticity, would regain all her liberty and, according to the turn of events with more experience, she would first guarantee her security with her allies of yesterday which, in any case, she wishes to keep to her."

GERMAN IN HUFF OVER ALLIED NOTE

General Mounts High Horse Because of Letter Demanding Baltic Evacuation.

PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 30.—The commander of the German forces on the Baltic, Gen. von der Goltz, according to a copyrighted dispatch from Berlin to the Philadelphia Public Ledger, has sent the following to the "chief of the allied military commission, Riga":

"Regarding your letter of September 16, I decline to discuss your ideas in the first two clauses of your letter. In the last clause you venture to request me to indicate to you certain of my fellow countrymen as guilty. I see in this presumption a grave insult to my person and to German national feeling. I should like to advise you, therefore, in the future not to make such base demands either to me or to my subordinates. I should be compelled to forbid every communication with you and to turn out every Englishman from the territory still occupied by the German troops."

"I shall place your letter before my government and I am convinced it will give a fitting reply to your government, through the proper representatives of the German empire's minister for foreign affairs, to this abusive demand which an allied commission thinks it can make to a German general abroad."

Commenting on this correspondence the conservative press expresses the hope that the foreign office will adopt a similar attitude to that of Von der Goltz.

"Smoke Virginia Straight"

Piedmonts would cost more, too, if—

Virginia tobacco paid import duty and ocean-freight which foreign-grown tobaccos must pay.

But Virginia tobacco escapes these tariff charges because it is grown right here in the South.

Virginia tobacco is not only the best liked cigarette tobacco—smoked five times more than all foreign-grown tobaccos combined—but it is the one tobacco of real character that makes a cigarette mean something.

Just try it in a Piedmont—the all-Virginia cigarette.
